

What is Supportive Housing and the Supportive Housing Registry (SHR)?

Supportive housing provides individuals who are experiencing homelessness or at risk of homelessness with a private room or apartment in a building with support services. Buildings and units vary in style, size and supports provided. Most supportive housing units are studios suitable for a single individual. Very few buildings have units with one or more bedrooms.

Who should use this form?

Supportive Housing Registry applicants who wish to live with or near one another should complete this form to authorize the Supportive Housing Registry to cross reference their application forms.

Declaration & Consent

- I/We authorize BC Housing and the Supportive Housing Registry to cross reference my/our Supportive Housing Registry application forms with a note that we would like to be considered for housing within the same development or area, if possible.
- I/We understand that this is not an agreement on the part of the Supportive Housing Registry or supportive housing providers to provide me/us with housing either separately or together.
- I/We understand that if I wish to withdraw this request, I may do so at any time by contacting the Supportive Housing Registry
